Marc J Small Memorial Soccer Tournament
Saturday, June 1, 2019
9:00am to 4:00pm
Heebner Park
Worcester Township Fields

Marc Small was a Lower Providence resident and played soccer throughout his youth for Methacton United Soccer Club and Methacton High School. Marc was a Special Forces Medic serving in the United States Army in Afghanistan.

As evidence of his intelligence, commitment, and courage, Marc rose to the rank of staff Sergeant, led his class in medical training, and earned the elite "Green Beret". Marc became a medic to care for his Army team as well as some of the poorest, most oppressed people on earth. Marc had only been in Afghanistan three weeks, but during that time he treated 40 patients a day, and built a relationship with the local people and children.

On February 12, 2009 Marc was killed in action in service to a grateful nation. While his loss is very difficult for everyone who knew him; they know his heroism and sacrifice, like so many others, was in defense of freedom and liberty.

In February of 2009, Marc was killed in action in Afghanistan. The Methacton United Soccer Club has organized this tournament to honor Marc's memory.

The tournament has been a fun community event for the past 10 years with children and adults playing soccer in a competitive yet friendly environment. We are pleased to again be playing at Heebner Park in Worcester Township. The games will be played on 12 short-sided fields with over 400 participants plus families and friends. Proceeds from the tournament fund two scholarships that are awarded in Marc's name.
